To the Citizens of Colorado,

We are honored to announce our endorsement of George Brauchler as Colorado's next Attorney General and we ask that you join us in supporting his candidacy in this year's election. As Colorado's largest and most influential law enforcement organization, representing several thousand law enforcement members across the state, we take our decision on who we endorse for Attorney General very seriously.

For us, there are many reasons to support the election of George Brauchler as Colorado's Attorney General. Colorado needs a new level of forward-thinking leadership in the Attorney General's office that will bring us back to statesmanship and integrity in preserving our Constitution. Unlike unprepared politicians angling for the Attorney General's position for political advancement, George Brauchler is uniquely prepared to protect Coloradans from the moment he takes office. He represents new, fresh leadership that our state needs and deserves. He has an unprecedented enthusiasm to take on the challenges that the Attorney General faces on a daily basis. He has taken on these challenges face-to-face at the local level as District Attorney of one of Colorado's largest judicial districts serving over one million of our state's citizens.

George represents the strength in leadership that we need to fight government overreach, drugs, crime and consumer victimization, and put into place programs that will help lead our youth down the right track to be productive citizens and people. He understands and strongly believes in rule of law. As Attorney General, he will refuse to legislate through litigation and resist turning to the courts to judicially mandate an outcome that fails to achieve approval through our state legislature or Congress. He will serve to strengthen our criminal justice system and protect each and every Coloradan from the growing public safety threats that risk tearing families and communities apart.

Colorado needs an experienced 'top cop' with a proven track record of working with law enforcement to combat crime and the ability to effectively collaborate with law enforcement statewide. George Brauchler is that person. George Brauchler's record of service to the rule of law and his principles of adhering to the rule of law make him just the type of Attorney General we need in Colorado. He knows what it takes to put criminals behind bars and has a proven record of taking violent felons off the streets.

We know his legal expertise, background, and persuasive personality make George a leader law enforcement can trust to vigilantly protect the citizens of our great state. Electing the right person to serve as Attorney General is a serious responsibility, one that is tremendously important to the citizens of this state. In short, he's the right person at the right time. The Colorado Fraternal Order of Police knows George is absolutely the best candidate, and we strongly encourage the citizens of Colorado to follow our endorsement and elect George Brauchler as their next Attorney General.

Sincerely,

Stephen Schulz,
President
Colorado Fraternal Order of Police
